

AMIC WELCOMES

Alexis Walton, PA-C, graduated from Boise State University, in Boise, ID, earning a Bachelor of Science in Imaging Science. She followed up by attending A.T. Still University of Health Sciences in Mesa, AZ, where she obtained her Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies.

As a previous CT technologist, Alexis enjoys CT-guided procedures. She is especially passionate about procedural medicine and helping patients feel informed, comfortable, and confident throughout their care. On a personal note, Alexis and her family are Idaho natives. They recently relocated from Mesa, AZ to Northern Colorado. She and her husband have two children, a 9-year-old son and a 7-year-old daughter. Outside of work Alexis enjoys creative projects, home improvement, and exploring the outdoors with her family.
